CONTAINER-GROWN STOCK

Ready for immediate delivery

In recent years there has been a steady trend toward Garden Stores, both as separate units of nurseries and in department stores. These container-grown plants are particularly adapted to this cash-and-carry trade, as well as serving the purpose of prolonging the season. As there is no disturbance of the roots, they can be planted any time of the year as long as water is available. We are growing well over one million container grown plants per year with a good assortment, as you will find listed below. These are practically all grown in the Plaintainers, which are crimped tapered cans and knock out exactly as a clay pot, but due to the very light weight there is quite a saving in shipping cost. We will be very happy to quote rates to any point in truck load lots. For example, in the one-gallon size we load 4200 to 4400 cans on a large tandem trailer, resulting in a very low cost per each for delivery.
